Coast Guard CPOs

The words ... "Go Ask the Chief" ... have resounded throughout the U.S. Coast Guard since the establishment of the enlisted rank of Chief Petty Officer. This year marks the 75th Anniversary of U. S. Coast Guard "Chief."

The 66th U.S. Congress officially approved and established the Coast Guard's Chief Petty Officer grade on 18 May 1920. The Coast Guard adopted the Navy's rate structure and its Chiefs inherited equal status with their Navy counterparts. The "Chief" captured a place in Coast Guard history.

The rich nautical origin of the Chief Petty Officer can be traced back to 1 April 1893, when the Navy created the rank of Chief Petty Officer. Earlier use of the title "Chief" dates back to 1865 during the Civil War era. At that time, Cooks were promoted to "Chief Cook (meaning the highest in ranking or authority).

In 1915, the merger of the Revenue Cutter Service and the U. S. Life Saving Service into the modern Coast Guard brought about many changes. When the "Surfman" of the Life Saving Service and the "Petty Officer" of the Revenue Cutter Service clashed over who was in charge, the Coast Guard realized there was a need to establish a position of higher authority—the "Chief" then secured a permanent place in the chain of command.

The first Coast Guard Chiefs were the former Station Keepers of Life Saving Stations. They were given the title Chief boatswains' mate (CBM) with an (L) for "Lifesaving" attached to their rate to distinguish them from their seagoing counterparts.

The initial ratings of the Chief Petty Officer, as they first appeared in U. S. Coast Guard Headquarters Regulations, General Order No. 43, Article 817, dated 18 May 1920, were: Seaman Branch – Chief boatswains' mate, Chief gunners mate and Chief quartermasters; Artificer Branch – Chief machinists' mate, Chief electricians, Chief carpenters' mate, Chief water tender and Chief storekeepers; Special Branch Chief commissary stewards, Chief yeomen and Chief pharmacists' mate.

The first uniforms of the Chief Petty Officer appeared in the 1922 Coast Guard Headquarters Uniform Regulations. They were similar in design to the Navy's with a Coast Guard distinguishing mark, a shield one inch in height, on the arm midway between the wrist and elbow.

The trade mark of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer, "The Anchor," was inherited from the Revenue Cutter Service. The fouled anchor with a shield superimposed to its shank (the emblem of the Officers of the Revenue Cutter Service) is still worn on the shoulder boards of Coast Guard Flag Officers.

The anchor is the identifying authority of the Chief Petty Officer and is emblematic of a Chief. It represents stability and security. It reminds Chiefs of their responsibility to keep those they serve safe from harm's way.

The historical significance of the shield dates back to the Revenue Cutter Service, when the U. S. Congress added the shield to the ensign in 1799 to distinguish cutters from other naval vessels. The 13 stars and 13 stripes on the shield represent the 13 original colonies.

The chain, symbolic of flexibility and strength, reminds Chiefs that the chain of life is forged day-by-day, link-by-link. The chain also represents the reliance of one CPO on another to get a job completed, and stresses that every Chief should endeavor not to be the weak link in the chain.

The chain fouled around the anchor represents the "Sailor's disgrace," and reminds Chiefs there may be times when circumstances are beyond their control in the performance of duty, yet a Chief must complete the task.

A white combination hat, known as "The Hat," with an anchor above the brim became the rite of passage for all

First Class Petty Officers promoted to Chief. When they left behind their "Cracker Jacks" and "Dixie Cups" and donned a new uniform, "The Hat" became the trademark of the Coast Guard Chief. Today, the combination hat represents leadership and authority, and is the only cover allowed to be worn by students attending the Chief Petty Officers Academy. At one point, Khakis became a trademark of the Chief, but they were eventually replaced by Bender Blues.

Despite the lack of historical records identifying the first Chief Petty Officers, it can be said that many Chiefs have served with honor, respect and devotion to duty in the finest traditions of the U.S. Coast Guard for the past 75 years.

Editor's Note: The information in this article was contributed from several sources including GMC Ken Vanek, Cleveland, Ohio, the Master Chief Petty Officer of the Coast Guard's Office and Scott Price, Historian's Office, U. S. Coast Guard Headquarters.

CPOA Formation and Reformation

In 1933, the Chief Petty Officers organized themselves into an association that would make their issues and concerns known to Coast Guard Headquarters. It was an effort of small groups gathered along district lines. They did not initially receive full endorsement CGHQ. However, the Association went forward anyway and in December 1933, met at the War Memorial Building in Baltimore, Md. This meeting was described as "the most significant of any previous meeting in the affairs of CPOs and the real corner stone of the organization was laid." However, the actual establishment date was March 25, 1933, at the Coast Guard Depot at Curtis Bay, Md., which allowed Curtis Bay to lay claim to being the first CPOA chapter in the Coast Guard.

They organized to "encourage fidelity, integrity to the Service, and better understanding and fellowship, and to advance the best interests of the enlisted personnel of the Coast Guard, especially of those associated as members of this organization, and to extend all possible relief to their widows and children; to foster the cultivation of military discipline and true allegiance to the United States of America...."

The framers of the CPO Constitution drew their constitutional ideal from the U.S. Constitution and adopted the motto "Ut Prosimus" meaning "That we may be of Service." There were 29 charter members in March 1933.

The CPOA was re-founded in 1969 after being disbanded during World War II. ADM Willard J. Smith officially recognized CPOA on April 7, 1969. CPOA now has 60 chapters nationwide with approximately 10,000 members.

THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

As presented on the Red Skelton Hour January 14, 1969

"I remember this one teacher. To me, he was the greatest teacher, a real sage of my time. He had such wisdom. We were all reciting the Pledge of Allegiance and he walked over and said: "I've been listening to you boys and girls recite the Pledge of Allegiance all semester and it seems as though it is becoming monotonous to you. If I may, I would like to recite it and try to explain to you the meaning of each word:

I - me, an individual, a committee of one.

Pledge - dedicate all of my worldly goods to give without self pity.

Allegiance - my love and my devotion.

To the Flag - our standard, Old Glory, a symbol of freedom. Wherever she waves, there is respect because your loyalty has given her a dignity that shouts freedom is everybody's job.

Of the United - that means that we have all come together.

States - individual communities that have united into 48 great states, 48 communities with pride and dignity and purpose all divided with imaginary boundaries, yet united to a common purpose, and that's love for country.

Of America.

And to the Republic - a state in which sovereign power is invested in representatives chosen by the people to govern. And government is the people and it's from the people to the leaders, not from the leaders to the people.

For which is stands.

One nation - meaning, so blessed by God.

Indivisible - incapable of being divided.

With liberty - which is freedom and the right of power to live one's own life without threats or fear or some sort of retaliation.

And justice - The principle or quality of dealing fairly with others.

For all - which means it's as much your country as it is mine.

Since I was a small boy, two states have been added to our country and two words have been added to the Pledge of Allegiance - "under God."

Wouldn't it be a pity if someone said, "That's a prayer" and that would be eliminated from schools, too?"

VEGAS FUN FACTS

THEN - In 1910, a person in Las Vegas or anywhere in Nevada found guilty of running any kind of game of chance (gambling) was pronounced guilty of a felony and could be sent to the state prison for a term of 1 to 5 years.

NOW - Legalized gambling brings in more than $35 billion to the greater Las Vegas area alone. The only industry that makes money faster is the United States Mint.

THEN - In 1976, the volume of legal Nevada sportsbook betting totaled $54.6 million.

NOW - Nevada's sportsbooks handle over $2 billion in bets a year. The National Football League and college football currently attract 40% of all sports bets, with Major League Baseball accounting for 25%. The majority of this sportsbook betting takes place in Las Vegas.

THEN - In May 1905, there was an auction to sell the land in blocks in Downtown Las Vegas. The auction was held at the corner of Fremont and Main, now the site of the Plaza Hotel and Casino. Prices started at $150 for regular lots, up to $1,750 for choice corner lots.

NOW - 17 acres of land on the corner of Las Vegas Boulevard and Tropicana Avenue sold for almost $29 million. That's over $1.7 million an acre.

THEN - When Las Vegas was incorporated as a city in 1909, the population was 1,500.

NOW - Over 4,000 people a month move to Las Vegas, which has a population of over one million people. It is the largest city in the United States which was founded in the 20th century.

THEN - In April of 1941, the first luxurious resort, the El Rancho, Vegas, opened on the "Strip." It started with 65 rooms and quickly grew to 125. (Has since burned down.)

NOW - The MGM Grand Hotel & Casino has 5,005 rooms and over 150,000 square feet of casino space.

THEN - In 1948, the average number of flights per day scheduled in and out of the local Las Vegas Airport was 12.

NOW - Over 850 flights per day fly in and out of McCarran International Airport, making it one of the busiest in the world.

ABOUT GAMBLING.....

Certified by the Guinness Book of World Records, the world's largest slot machine is located at the Four Queens Hotel & Casino in downtown Las Vegas. The slot machine, known as the Queen's Machine, is about the size of a small motorhome and six people can play it simultaneously.

A woman was playing one of the progressive penny slot machines at the Western Hotel & Casino, killing time before playing bingo. When the woman was ready to leave, she sold the 75 cents she had in penny credits to a gentleman. FOUR pulls later, he hit the largest progressive penny slot machine payout in history: $95,177.50

Australian media mogul Kerry Packer won $9 million during a New Year's holiday in 1994. Being most generous, he left behind 19 $25,000 chips for the dealers on that shift, for a total of $475,000 in tips.

Cocktails are given freely at most casinos. The other privileges, known as "Comps," come at a price: Bet $50 per hand & receive a coffee shop comp - Bet $75 per hand & receive room, meals and a show - Bet $150 per hand & receive airfare, room and meals. High rollers receive all that, plus the hotel will send a private jet to pick them up anywhere in the United States.

Baccarat is the game most high rollers play, often betting as much as $200,000 or more a hand. That totals out to over $14 million an hour based on the possible 70 hands played per hour.

The slot machine is also known as the "one-armed bandit" because it has one handle or one arm which is pulled to play the machine and on occasion has a tendency to take a player's money. There are more than 117,000 slot machines in Las Vegas.

The basic slot machine has three reels with 20 symbols each, translating to a possibility of 8,000 different combinations.

Quarter slot machines are the most popular casino game in Las Vegas, followed by Dollar Slots, Blackjack/21, Nickel Slots, Baccarat and Craps.

In the game "21", it is considered blackjack anytime a player has only 2 cards which equal 21, such as an ace and a jack. The color of cards has no bearing on the game. Blackjack is the most popular table game played in Las Vegas casinos.

To open the MGM Grand Hotel & Casino, the hotel needed $3.5 million in quarters alone. Each bag of $1,000 weighed 60 pounds and it took 39 armored cars two nights to secretly move 3,600 bags of quarters.

DIDJA KNOW.....

Over 100,000 marriage licenses are issued in Las Vegas annually. That's an average of one "I do" every five minutes. Over 2,000 marriage licenses are issued in the three to four days preceding Valentine's Day.

The most powerful beam of light in the world shines from the top of the 30-story Luxor Hotel & Casino. The beam is equivalent to 40 billion candle power and is visible to planes at cruising altitude up to 250 miles away in Los Angeles, California.

There are no corporate, estate, inventory, personal state income, franchise or unitary taxes in Las Vegas or anywhere in the State of Nevada.

Las Vegas is the only city in the world where a train station is located in a casino. AMTRAK provides daily service in and out of Las Vegas through the Plaza Hotel & Casino in downtown Las Vegas.

At any time, 24 hours a day, you can: Gamble, Buy a refrigerator, Workout at a gym, Clean your carpets, Pawn your watch, Arrange for a caterer, Pick up your cleaning, Get a bail bondsman, Rent a maid, Sell your car, Grocery shop, Buy car parts, Call a plumber, Get a locksmith, Hire an attorney, Get a loan, Rent a date, Get married, Get divorced, Eat a meal, and much, much more!

The nickname "The Strip" was a term given to a major street in Las Vegas by a Los Angeles cop and gambler who owned the Pair-O-Dice Club in 1946. He drove between his home and his club so often that he began referring to that stretch of highway as "The Strip" after the famous Sunset Strip in Los Angeles. The nickname for what is now known as Las Vegas Boulevard stuck and is still commonly used today.

There are more than 90,000 rooms in Las Vegas and they average over a 90% occupancy rate.

Las Vegas has the least precipitation and the lowest relative humidity of any metropolitan area in the country. The average temperature is 66.3 degrees, with an average annual rainfall of 4.19 inches. Las Vegas averages 315 sunshiny days each year. The highest temperature ever recorded at the National Weather Service in Las Vegas was 117 on July 24, 1942 (incidentally, temperatures are recorded in the shade). When it is 100 degrees outside, it becomes 154 degrees inside a car in a matter of minutes.

Rumor has it that it gets so hot in Las Vegas during the summer that you can actually fry an egg on the sidewalk - The truth is you really can't, because it will evaporate first.

There are no visible clocks in casinos in Las Vegas. Why worry about time when you're having so much fun!

Las Vegas was given the title of "Entertainment Capital of the World" after World War II because of the variety of entertainment available to guests 24 hours a day.

Counting "The Strip" and Downtown Las Vegas, there are over 15,000 miles of lighted neon tubing.

The Golden Nugget Hotel & Casino in Downtown Las Vegas is home to the world's largest gold nugget: it weighs 61 pounds, 11 ounces and is about the size of a loaf of bread.

The precision flying team for the United States Air Force, the THUNDERBIRDS, have been based out of Nellis Air Force Base in Las Vegas since 1956.

When the Mirage Hotel & Casino opened in 1989, the cost was $630 million dollars. At that time, its price tag EXCEEDED THE COST OF BUILDING ALL OTHER STRIP PROPERTIES AND HOOVER DAM COMBINED.

On September 7, 1994, Fremont Street in Downtown Las Vegas, permanently closed to vehicular traffic to make way for the exciting Fremont Street Experience project. It includes a spectacular overhead space frame which is nearly 100 feet high and 1,500 feet long. Nightly shows feature a sky parade and light show with over 2.1 million lights run by 32 computers.

Although brothels are legal in parts of Nevada, they are illegal in Las Vegas and Clark County. When Nellis Air Force Base opened in 1941, brothels were officially shut down in the Southern Nevada area.

The MGM Grand Hotel, Casino & Theme Park contains more ATM machines than any other single building in the world and has its own 40-megawatt power plant.

The volcano at the Mirage Hotel & Casino erupts every 15 minutes during the evening hours. A staff of 12 full-time employees are on hand to monitor the volcano's every Pina Colada-scented burp.

Reputed mobster Benjamin Siegel opened the original Flamingo Hilton Hotel & Casino in 1946 at a cost of $6 million. It closed as a financial flop just 14 days later.

The L'Amour Wedding Chapel has a motorhome for "Weddings on Wheels" and a drive-up window where the minister will actually perform the ceremony while the bride and groom are in their car.

SOME FAMOUS PEOPLE OF LAS VEGAS:

Howard Hughes - Four years following his arrival to Vegas, he purchased six hotels/casinos, an air charter service, a television station, the North Las Vegas Airport, casinos in Reno, and acres of real estate - all at a cost of $300 million.

Walter Valentino Liberace - Legally assumed the name of Liberace in 1950. He first played in Las Vegas at the age of 23. By 1955, he was paid $50,000 a week to headline at the Riviera Hotel & Casino.

Bob Stupak - Former owner of Vegas World Hotel & Casino and now serving as a Board Member at the Stratosphere Hotel & Casino, placed the largest legal bet ($1,000,000) on a Superbowl game in 1991 and won. It was placed at Little Ceasars Gambling Casino, a small, independent sportsbook in Las Vegas.

Sammy Davis, Jr. - Was considered one of the best entertainers to ever perform in Las Vegas. When he passed away in May, 1990, the marquee lights on The Strip went dark for 10 minutes in his honor - an unprecedented event in Las Vegas history.

Benny Binion - Came to Las Vegas with his family and a suitcase filled with $2 million in cash. Five years later he purchased his first casino that later became known as Binion's Horseshoe & Casino. In June, 1988, he bought the casino next door for $27 million cash. He has since passed away, but his legend lives on.

Siegfried & Roy - Are two of the highest paid entertainers in Las Vegas, having signed a five-year agreement worth a reported $57.5 million.

The Beattles - In 1964 the Sahara Hotel booked them for two shows at the Convention Center. They performed for 8,500 fans and tickets sold for a mere $4.

Barbara Streisand - Performed her first paid concerts in more than 25 years at the MGM in 1993 and 1994. She was paid $20 million for the two performances and the hotel received over 1,000,000 requests for tickets.

Elvis Presley - Made his Las Vegas comeback at the International Hotel & Casino when it opened in 1969 and performed there to a sell-out crowd every night until his death in 1977.

Many well-known celebrities have homes in Las Vegas. Some of them are:

CGd Chiefs' Associations Set Meeting

WASHINGTON—The first national conference of the Coast Guard's chief petty officer associations will be held at Headquarters September 29—October 3.

The schedule for the week includes a luncheon September 30 at which the association delegates will be greeted by Coast Guard Commandant Adm. Willard J. Smith and a second luncheon October 3 in honor of Master Chief Boatswain's Mate Charles L. Calhoun.

The president of the national council, Master Chief Boatswain's Mate James B. Kane, told Navy Times that the top enlisted men from the other Armed services would be on hand to welcome Calhoun, the new Master Chief of the Coast Guard.

Kane also said that the senior chief petty officer of the British Navy, who was recently made an honorary member of the association's Portland, Maine, chapter, has been invited to attend the conference.

Among the items to be discussed by the assembled delegates from the local chapters are the by-laws for the national and local associations, fees and dues, the kinds of membership to be awarded, rules for establishing new chapters and group insurance.

The Coast Guard's national CPO association is the only service-wide association in the armed forces that has only chief petty officers as members.

The national association and the council were established in March with nine affiliated chapters and about 500 members. There are now 14 chapters and over 1700 members. Membership is open to all active duty, Reserve and retired Coast Guard chief petty officers.

A Few Good Reasons Why CPOA/CGEA Members Should Be Associated With GEICO.

CPOA members may save 10-15% or more on car insurance. Members with good driving records may qualify for quality, low-cost auto insurance through GEICO. It's an opportunity for you to cut your insurance costs without giving up the excellent service you deserve.

CPOA members receive GEICO's round-the-clock service. Whenever you need to make a claim, report an accident, change your coverage or simply ask a question, you can! Just pick up the phone and dial our toll-free number 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year.

CPOA members benefit from over 50 years of military experience. Since 1936, GEICO has been nationally recognized for providing quality auto insurance services to military personnel. With offices near most major military bases and a management team that includes several retired military employees, GEICO specializes in meeting the unique needs of the military. Today, over 240,000 active and retired military personnel insure with the GEICO companies.

CPOA members get their choice of coverage and payment plans. If you qualify, you'll get coverage tailored to your personal needs and a choice of convenient payment plans to fit your budget.

All it takes is a toll-free phone call. Call 1-800-368-2734 and ask for your free, no-obligation rate quote. Be sure to mention your membership and you'll receive priority processing. If you're accepted, you can arrange for immediate coverage by charging your first premium on your credit card. (Not available in all states.) Call today to discover why so many CPOA members are associated with GEICO.

Call 1-800-368-2734

or visit your local GEICO Representative

GEICO

Serving those who serve the nation.

Should you not meet all of the underwriting requirements of Government Employees Insurance Company or GEICO General Insurance Company, you may still qualify for the same quality insurance and service from another GEICO affiliate at somewhat higher rates. GEICO auto insurance is not available in MA or NJ. In PA, this program is offered through a GEICO affiliate, GEICO Indemnity Company. These shareholder-owned companies are not affiliated with the U.S. Government. GEICO's pricing for this program is not based on group experience in most states. Home Office: Washington, D.C. 20076.

Chief Petty Officer Charge

During the course of this day you have been caused to suffer indignities, to experience humiliation. This you have accomplished with rare good grace, and therefore, we now believe it fitting to explain to you why this was done. There was no intent, no desire to insult you, to demean you. Pointless as it may have seemed to you, there was a valid, time-honored reason behind every single deed, behind each pointed barb.

By experience, by performance and by testing, you have been advanced to Chief Petty Officer. You have one more hurdle to overcome. In the United States Coast Guard, E-7 carries unique responsibilities. No other armed force throughout the world carries the responsibilities nor grants the privileges to its enlisted personnel comparable to the privileges and responsibilities you are now bound to receive and are expected to fulfill.

Your entire way of life has now been changed. More will be expected of you, more will be demanded of you. Not because you are an E-7, but because you are now a Chief Petty Officer. You have not merely been promoted one pay grade, you have joined an exclusive fraternity, and as in all fraternities, you have a special responsibility to your fellow Chiefs, even as they have a special responsibility to you.

These privileges, these responsibilities, do not appear in print. They have no official standing, they cannot be referred to by name, number or file. They exist because for over 200 years, Chiefs before you have freely accepted responsibility beyond the call of printed assignment. Their actions and their performance demanded the respect of their seniors as well as their juniors. It is now required that you be the fount of wisdom, the ambassador of good will, the authority in personnel relations, as well as technical applications. "Ask the Chief" is a household word in and out of the Coast Guard. You are now the "Chief."

The exalted position you have now received, and the word "exalted" admittedly, exists because of the attitude, the performance of the Chiefs before you. It shall exist only so long as you and your compatriots maintain these standards.

So this then is why you were caused to experience these things. You were subjected to humiliation to prove to you that humility is a good, a great, and necessary change, which cannot harm you. This, in fact, strengthens you, and in your future as a Chief Petty Officer you will be caused to suffer indignities, and to experience humiliation far beyond those imposed upon you today. Bear them with the dignity, with the same good grace with which you bore these today.

It is our intention that you will never forget this day. It was our intention to test you, to try you, to accept you. Your performance has assured us that you will wear your hat with the pride of those before you.

We take a deep sincere pleasure in clasping your hand and accepting you into our midst.
